

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white.

Luke 9:28, 29

En aquel tiempo, Jesús se hizo acompañar de Pedro, Santiago y Juan, y subió a un monte para hacer oración. Mientras oraba, su rostro cambió de aspecto y sus vestiduras se hicieron blancas y relampagueantes.

Transfiguration of Jesus
by Carl Bloch, 1872

2ND SUNDAY OF
LENT

2^º DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

Weekend at Birney's

Second Sunday of Lent

“On the first Sunday of Lent, our Gospel always tells the story of Jesus' temptation in the desert. On the second Sunday, we always hear the story of Jesus' Transfiguration.

The context for Luke's Transfiguration story is like that found in both Matthew and Mark. The Transfiguration occurs after Peter's confession that Jesus is the Messiah and Jesus' prediction about his Passion. After the prediction there is a discussion of the cost of discipleship in each of these Gospels. The placement of the Transfiguration story close to Peter's confession and Jesus' prediction encourages us to examine the Transfiguration in the larger context of the Paschal Mystery.

The Transfiguration occurs on a mountain in the presence of just three of Jesus' disciples—Peter, James and John. These are among the first disciples that Jesus called in Luke's Gospel. Luke indicates that the three disciples were sleeping while Jesus prayed. They will be sleeping again as Jesus prays in the Garden of Gethsemane before his Passion and death.

As they awake, Peter and the disciples see Jesus Transfigured and Elijah and Moses present with Jesus. Elijah and Moses, both significant figures in the history of Israel, represent Jesus' continuity with the Law and the Prophets.

In his Transfiguration, we see an anticipation of the glory of Jesus' Resurrection. In each of the reports of the Transfiguration, the disciples keep secret what they have seen. Not until they also witness his Passion and death will the disciples understand Jesus' Transfiguration. We hear this story of Jesus' Transfiguration early in Lent, but we have the benefit of hindsight. In our hearing of it, we anticipate Jesus' Resurrection even as we prepare to remember Jesus' Passion and death.” (loyolapress.com)

Welcome Archbishop Edward Weisenburger

On February 10th, Pope Francis appointed Bishop Edward J. Weisenburger, currently Bishop of the Diocese of Tucson, as the sixth Archbishop of Detroit. The archbishop-elect succeeds Archbishop Allen H. Vigneron, who has served the archdiocese since 2009.

The new archbishop will be installed at a ceremony at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament at 2:00pm on March 18. Following his installation, Archbishop Weisenburger will begin his assignment as chief shepherd of Michigan's largest Catholic diocese, comprising more than 900,000 Catholics, 213 parishes and 81 elementary and high schools.

The Archdiocese of Detroit was established by Pope Gregory XVI in 1833 as the Diocese of Detroit and was elevated to an archdiocese by Pope Pius XI in 1937. Today, the archdiocese encompasses 3,903 square miles of six counties in southeast Michigan: Lapeer, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, and Wayne. Please join me in praying for our new Archbishop as he begins his ministry with us in the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Happy St. Patrick's Day

Patrick is honored in Ireland through pilgrimages to sites believed to hold an association with him. One of these is the annual pilgrimage to the top of Croagh Patrick, a mountain in County Mayo in western Ireland. The pilgrimage occurs each year on the last Sunday of July, known as Reek Sunday after the mountain's nickname, “the Reek.” Reputedly, Patrick spent 40 days and nights fasting on the mountain, after which he banished all snakes, demons, and practitioners of magic into a lake at the base of the mountain, known as Log na nDeamhan (Demon's Hollow).

Thousands of pilgrims scale the 2,510 ft. tall mountain on Reek Sunday, rain or shine, many of them beginning before dawn and some attempting the journey in their bare feet. Three Bronze Age cairns along the route, known as stations, serve as stopping points where pilgrims can pray, and masses are celebrated throughout the day in a chapel located at the peak.

Quote for the Week

“Christ beside me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ within me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me.”
– St. Patrick

That's all for now, see you in Church, Fr. Tim Birney

Fin de Semana en Birney's

Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma

"En el primer domingo de Cuaresma, nuestro Evangelio siempre cuenta la historia de la tentación de Jesús en el desierto. El segundo domingo, siempre escuchamos la historia de la Transfiguración de Jesús.

El contexto de la historia de la Transfiguración de Lucas es similar al que se encuentra tanto en Mateo como en Marcos. La Transfiguración ocurre después de la confesión de Pedro de que Jesús es el Mesías y la predicción de Jesús sobre su Pasión. Después de la predicción, hay una discusión sobre el costo del discipulado en cada uno de estos Evangelios. La ubicación de la historia de la Transfiguración cerca de la confesión de Pedro y la predicción de Jesús nos anima a examinar la Transfiguración en el contexto más amplio del Misterio Pascual.

La Transfiguración ocurre en una montaña en presencia de solo tres de los discípulos de Jesús: Pedro, Santiago y Juan. Estos son algunos de los primeros discípulos que Jesús llamó en el Evangelio de Lucas. Lucas indica que los tres discípulos estaban durmiendo mientras Jesús oraba. Volverán a dormir mientras Jesús ora en el Huerto de Getsemaní antes de su Pasión y muerte.

Al despertar, Pedro y los discípulos ven a Jesús transfigurado y a Elías y Moisés presentes con Jesús. Elías y Moisés, ambas figuras significativas en la historia de Israel, representan la continuidad de Jesús con la Ley y los Profetas.

En su Transfiguración, vemos una anticipación de la gloria de la resurrección de Jesús. En cada uno de los relatos de la Transfiguración, los discípulos mantienen en secreto lo que han visto. Hasta que no sean testigos de su pasión y muerte, los discípulos no comprenderán la Transfiguración de Jesús. Escuchamos esta historia de la Transfiguración de Jesús al principio de la Cuaresma, pero tenemos el beneficio de la retrospectiva. Al oír hablar de ello, anticipamos la resurrección de Jesús incluso mientras nos preparamos para recordar la pasión y muerte de Jesús". (loyolapress.com)

Bienvenido Mons. Edward Weisenburger

El 10 de febrero, el Papa Francisco nombró al Obispo Edward J. Weisenburger, actualmente Obispo de la Diócesis de Tucson, como el sexto arzobispo de Detroit. El arzobispo electo sucede al arzobispo Allen H. Vigneron, quien ha servido a la arquidiócesis desde 2009.

El nuevo arzobispo será instalado en una ceremonia en la Catedral del Santísimo Sacramento a las 2:00pm el 18 de marzo. Después de su instalación, el arzobispo Weisenburger comenzará su asignación como pastor principal de la diócesis católica más grande de Michigan, que comprende más de 900,000 católicos, 213 parroquias y 81 escuelas primarias y secundarias.

La Arquidiócesis de Detroit fue establecida por el Papa Gregorio XVI en 1833 como la Diócesis de Detroit y fue elevada a arquidiócesis por el Papa Pío XI en 1937. Hoy en día, la arquidiócesis abarca 3,903 millas cuadradas de seis condados en el sureste de Michigan: Lapeer, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair y Wayne. Por favor, únanse a mí en oración por nuestro nuevo arzobispo al comenzar su ministerio con nosotros en la Arquidiócesis de Detroit.

Feliz Día de San Patricio

Patricio es honrado en Irlanda a través de peregrinaciones a sitios que se cree que tienen una asociación con él. Una de ellas es la peregrinación anual a la cima de Croagh Patrick, una montaña en el condado de Mayo, en el oeste de Irlanda. La peregrinación tiene lugar cada año el último domingo de julio, conocido como Domingo del Apestoso por el apodo de la montaña, "el Hedor". Se dice que Patricio pasó 40 días y noches ayunando en la montaña, después de lo cual desterró a todas las serpientes, demonios y practicantes de magia a un lago en la base de la montaña, conocido como Log na nDeamhan (Valle del Demonio).

Miles de peregrinos escalan la montaña de 2.510 pies de altura el domingo de Reek, llueva o truene, muchos de ellos comenzando antes del amanecer y algunos intentando el viaje con los pies descalzos. Tres túmulos de la Edad del Bronce a lo largo de la ruta, conocidos como estaciones, sirven como puntos de parada donde los peregrinos pueden rezar, y se celebran misas durante todo el día en una capilla ubicada en la cima.

Frase de la semana

"Cristo a mi lado, Cristo delante de mí, Cristo detrás de mí, Cristo dentro de mí, Cristo debajo de mí, Cristo encima de mí." – San Patricio

Eso es todo por ahora, nos vemos en la Iglesia, Padre Tim Birney

Lift Up Your Hearts

Jesus took Peter, John and James and went up the mountain to pray. Jesus' face changed in appearance and His clothing became dazzling white. Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here, with Moses and Elijah." From the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Chosen Son; listen to him."

Surely, we need to listen for the voice of God.

Yes, we have some of our appropriate Lenten sacrifices. To share, pray, fast and give alms. It's good to hold back on some things, to give up things for Lent.

Today, I would like to encourage an additional kind of "giving up." I would like to encourage giving up whatever it takes to make time to spend with Jesus in personal prayer. The great St. Augustine realized and said, "Jesus was always with me, but I was not always with Him."

Perhaps the gift of time would be workable for us. Sure, if you can take some extra time for prayer this Lent. Also, take some time to spend with Jesus in quiet reflection and prayer.... just you and Jesus. Also, you may like to take some time to sit with Our Mother Mary, who was so close to Jesus, as His mother.

Peter, John and James went up the mountain to express their love for God. We too are invited to climb the mountain of prayer. Speak with Jesus, One on one!

The "Yes" of our Baptism, as babies was spoken by our parents and Godparents. But now the "YES" must come from OUR Heart.

With love, Fr. Leo

Saint Joseph

March 19th

Joseph, someone once joked, was indeed the perfect husband: the only major character in Jesus' story who never utters a word! But the Gospel recounts and the liturgy celebrates his silent witness of faith-filled deeds: "With a husband's love he cherished Mary, the Virgin Mother of God; with fatherly care he watched over Jesus" (Preface of Saint Joseph, Sacramentary). Catholic devotion, therefore, hails him as patron-protector of the universal Church. Some cultures set a festive "Saint Joseph's Table," welcoming the poor and strangers to feast with family and friends.

Tradition keeps today as the anniversary of his death, which we presume was peaceful, with Jesus and Mary present. Thus, Catholics invoke Joseph as "patron of a happy death." Descended from David's house, which God finished "building" through Joseph's provision of a home for Mary and Jesus, he was, fittingly, a carpenter by trade; thus, patron of workers. Spring, nature's rebirth, begins between his feast and Annunciation (March 25), appropriately, since Joseph's silent obedience and Mary's "Let it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38) usher in humanity's spiritual rebirth.

Second Sunday of Lent

Have Faith

The story of the Transfiguration of Jesus in Luke's Gospel this week is similar to the ones in Matthew and Mark. One difference I noticed in Luke's version is that Jesus does not tell the three disciples to keep it secret. It seems they decided on their own not to tell anyone.

One reason may be what they heard. While Matthew and Mark just say that Jesus spoke with Moses and Elijah, Luke is more specific: They "spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem" (9:31). Jesus had just said that he would suffer, die, and be raised from the dead in Luke 9:22.

They probably hoped he was just telling them the worst that could happen, not what really would happen. So hearing it from Moses and Elijah as well as from Jesus was too much for them. This is where we come in. The apostles were afraid to face the coming passion and death of Jesus. I think we are like them in that we suffer more in anticipating what would hurt us than we do going through it. That is where faith can help. In faith, we hear Jesus tell us not to fear, as he often told his disciples.

We know that Jesus suffered on the cross, so he knows what suffering is. And faith tells us that he is with us even when the suffering is the result of our own sins. After all, he himself suffered because of our sins. So have faith!
