Weekend at Birney's

Welcome Back Deacon Dan Whalen

We welcome back to our Quo Vadis Domine FOP, Deacon Dan Whalen. Once seminarians reach the completion of their second year in the School of Theology (graduate school) they are assigned to a parish during the summer for an internship. Typically, they continue that assignment until the completion of studies and formation. Dan was with us last summer, and now he returns as a Transitional Deacon for this summer and on the weekends throughout his final school year (2025-26). You'll see Deacon Dan on the Altar assisting at Mass, preaching, presiding at baptisms, weddings and funeral services. Please offer a word of support and prayer as Deacon Dan share his gifts and talents in service to the Lord within our parishes.

Happy Mother's Day

Mother's Day is a time to celebrate our mothers, living and deceased, and the important women in our lives and the blessing from God that they represent.

While not technically a Catholic or Christian holiday, Mother's Day is still an important day of prayer and reflection for many, recognizing not only the gift of Mary to the Church, but the gift of mothers and motherlike figures in our lives. Mother's Day also falls during the Month of Mary, which the Church has recognized for centuries, turning to Our Lady as a guide to better know and love her Son, Jesus. God bless our mothers and let this be a day when we offer a prayer to Mary for intercession on behalf of all our loving mother's.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray to the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity, secular institutes), and to the missionary life.

How blessed we are in our Quo Vadis Domine Family of Parishes to have newly ordained Deacon Dan Whalen assigned to minister in our parishes as a Transitional Deacon. He joins many others that have been part of our parishes for internships or diaconate from the past several years.

Doubly blessed are we to have a parish son from St. Alfred, Deacon Lizandro Barba, a fellow classmate of Deacon Dan, to also be part of our 'vocational awareness' within our FOP. Deacon Lizandro and Dan were both recently ordained Transitional Deacons for the Archdiocese of Detroit. Deacon Lizandro is assigned as a Transitional Deacon to the Oakland Hills FOP (St. Damien of Molokai, Pontiac; St. Hugo, Bloomfield Hills; Sacred Heart, Auburn Hills; St. Benedict, Waterford; and St. Thomas More, Troy). He lives and primarily ministers at the St. Damien parish. For both Deacon Dan and Lizandro, this is the final step in a long discernment process, that ultimately leads to ordination to the priesthood that will occur next year, Saturday, May 23, 2026.

And there is yet more....we also have a triple and quadruple blessing!

In addition to all the above, we also have a 2017 graduate of St. Frances Cabrini High School, Joseph Lennon, who is a parishioner at Divine Child, Dearborn and currently completing his second year in the School of Theology (sixth year overall) at Sacred Heart Major Seminary. Many of you will remember that Joseph lived at St. Frances Cabrini parish for 2019-2020 school year for an internship. His ordination to the priesthood is scheduled for 2028.

Very proud to also announce, that a longtime student from both Cabrini Grade School, and soon-to-be 2025 graduate of Cabrini High School, Ralph Kaleniecki, will be entering Sacred Heart Major Seminary for his first year of College and ongoing discernment of the priesthood. His time in the Seminary will include four years of college (Liberal Arts, with a focus on Philosophy), followed by four years of graduate work (School of Theology). It is a long road, but one filled with many graces. Ralph and his family are parishioners at Our Lady Star of the Sea, Grosse Pointe.

Please join me in praying for all these young men, for all the blessings we receive from their witness of discernment, and for many more to follow in their footsteps, as they courageously respond to the call from the Good Shepherd.

Quote of the Week

"The loveliest masterpiece of the heart of God is the heart of a mother." - St. Thérèse of Lisieux

That's all for now, see you in Church. Fr. Tim Birney

Fin de Semana en Birney's

Bienvenido de nuevo al diácono Dan Whalen

Damos la bienvenida de nuevo a nuestro FOP Quo Vadis Domine, al Diácono Dan Whalen. Una vez que los seminaristas alcanzan la finalización de su segundo año en la Facultad de Teología (escuela de posgrado), se les asigna a una parroquia durante el verano para una pasantía. Por lo general, continúan esa tarea hasta la finalización de los estudios y la formación. Dan estuvo con nosotros el verano pasado, y ahora regresa como Diácono de Transición para este verano y los fines de semana durante su último año escolar (2025-26). Verás al Diácono Dan en el Altar asistiendo a la Misa, predicando, presidiendo bautizos, bodas y servicios funerarios. Por favor, ofrezca una palabra de apoyo y oración mientras el Diácono Dan comparte sus dones y talentos al servicio del Señor dentro de nuestras parroquias.

Feliz Día de las Madres

El Día de la Madre es un momento para celebrar a nuestras madres, vivas y fallecidas, y a las mujeres importantes en nuestras vidas y la bendición de Dios que representan. Aunque técnicamente no es una fiesta católica o cristiana, el Día de la Madre sigue siendo un día importante de oración y reflexión para muchos, reconociendo no sólo el don de María a la Iglesia, sino el don de las madres y las figuras maternas en nuestras vidas. El Día de la Madre también cae durante el Mes de María, que la Iglesia ha reconocido durante siglos, recurriendo a Nuestra Señora como guía para conocer y amar mejor a su Hijo, Jesús. Dios bendiga a nuestras madres y que este sea un día en el que ofrezcamos una oración a María por intercesión en nombre de todas nuestras amorosas madres.

Jornada Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones

El propósito de la Jornada Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones es cumplir públicamente la instrucción del Señor de "Rogad al Dueño de la mies que envíe obreros a su mies" (Mt 9:38; Lc 10,2). Como culmen de una oración que se ofrece continuamente en toda la Iglesia, afirma la primacía de la fe y de la gracia en todo lo que concierne a las vocaciones al sacerdocio y a la vida consagrada. Aun apreciando todas las vocaciones, la Iglesia concentra su atención este día en las vocaciones a los ministerios ordenados (sacerdocio y diaconado), a la vida consagrada en todas sus formas (vida religiosa masculina y femenina, sociedades de vida apostólica, virginidad consagrada, institutos seculares) y a la vida misionera.

Cuán bendecidos somos en nuestra Familia de Parroquias Quo Vadis Domine por tener al recién ordenado Diácono Dan Whalen asignado para ministrar en nuestras parroquias como Diácono de Transición. Él se une a muchos otros que han sido parte de nuestras parroquias para pasantías o diaconado en los últimos años.

Doblemente bendecidos somos de tener un hijo de la parroquia de San Alfredo, el Diácono Lizandro Barba, compañero de clase del Diácono Dan, para que también sea parte de nuestra 'conciencia vocacional' dentro de nuestra FOP. El Diácono Lizandro y Dan fueron ordenados recientemente Diáconos de Transición para la Arquidiócesis de Detroit. El Diácono Lizandro es asignado como Diácono de Transición a la FOP de Oakland Hills (San Damián de Molokai, Pontiac; San Hugo, Bloomfield Hills; Sagrado Corazón, Auburn Hills; San Benito, Waterford; y Santo Tomás Moro, Troya). Vive y trabaja principalmente en la parroquia de San Damián. Tanto para el diácono Dan como para Lizandro, este es el paso final de un largo proceso de discernimiento, que finalmente conduce a la ordenación al sacerdocio que ocurrirá el próximo año, el sábado 23 de mayo de 2026.

¡Y aún hay más... también tenemos una bendición triple y cuádruple!

Además de todo lo anterior, también tenemos a un graduado en 2017 de la Escuela Secundaria St. Frances Cabrini, Joseph Lennon, quien es feligrés en Divine Child, Dearborn y actualmente está completando su segundo año en la Escuela de Teología (sexto año en general) en el Seminario Mayor del Sagrado Corazón. Muchos de ustedes recordarán que José vivió en la parroquia de Santa Francisca Cabrini durante el año escolar 2019-2020 para una pasantía. Su ordenación sacerdotal está prevista para 2028.

Muy orgulloso de anunciar también que un estudiante de larga data de la Escuela Primaria Cabrini y que pronto se graduará en 2025 de la Escuela Secundaria Cabrini, Ralph Kaleniecki, ingresará al Seminario Mayor del Sagrado Corazón para su primer año de universidad y discernimiento continuo del sacerdocio. Su tiempo en el Seminario incluirá cuatro años de universidad (Artes Liberales, con un enfoque en Filosofía), seguidos de cuatro años de trabajo de posgrado (Escuela de Teología). Es un camino largo, pero lleno de muchas gracias. Ralph y su familia son feligreses de Nuestra Señora Estrella del Mar, Grosse Pointe.

Por favor, únense a mí en oración por todos estos jóvenes, por todas las bendiciones que recibimos de su testimonio de discernimiento, y para que muchos más sigan sus pasos, mientras responden valientemente al llamado del Buen Pastor.

Dear Friends,
In a world that often feels fast-paced and fragmented, our families remain one of the most vital anchors of identity, love, and support. While no family is perfect, the bonds we share within them form the foundation of who we are.

Maintaining these relationships—despite misunderstandings, distance, or time—nurtures not only our emotional well-being but also our sense of belonging and purpose.

Families are our first school of love, forgiveness, patience, and sacrifice. They teach us how to care, how to listen, and how to grow through both joy and pain. When we invest in our familial ties—through presence, communication, and reconciliation—we strengthen the invisible threads that hold generations together.

In times of difficulty, family can be a sanctuary. In times of celebration, family is where joy multiplies. Even when wounds exist, choosing to forgive and reach out opens the door to healing and restoration. Maintaining these relationships doesn't always mean agreeing on everything, but it does mean choosing to value connection over division.

In the end, strong families don't happen by chance—they're built by love, effort, and grace, one small act at a time.

This week, we venerate and honor Our Lady of Sorrows!

Ways to Honor Our Lady of Sorrows:

- Pray the Rosary of the Seven Sorrows
- Attend Mass on her Feast Day, September 15
- Meditate on her sorrows, uniting your own pain with hers
- Place a small image or statue in your home as a visual reminder of her maternal compassion

Peace,
Fr. Ryan

Jubilee Celebration

For Christians, hope is anchored in the encounter with Jesus whose life, death, and resurrection reveals God's transforming love.

Donate those unwanted items in your closed. Dislodge the hodgepodge in your garage!

Bundle Weekend is your opportunity to help those in need by providing your gently used items to St. Vincent de Paul's Thrift Store!

If you can volunteer to help during these times, please call (313) 436-0206. The truck will be next to the Garden between the church and Holy Family Hall.

Stewardship of Prayer Corresponsabilidad de Oracion

The risen Lord challenges us to be better stewards of our daily lives. We must be stewards in our prayer and worship, in our lifestyle and use of time, and even in such matters as the attention we give to personal health and recreation. Pray that the Holy Spirit will help you respond to the challenge of stewardship.

Cristo Jesús nos desafía a ser buenos corresponsables de nuestra vida diaria. Debemos ser corresponsables de nuestras oraciones y del culto, en nuestro estilo de vida y en el uso del tiempo, y en otros asuntos tales como la atención que damos a nuestra salud personal y la diversión. Oremos para que el Espíritu Santo nos ayude a ser mejores corresponsables de nuestra vida.

In 2026, St. Mary Magdalen Parish will proudly celebrate 100 years of faith, community, and cherished traditions! This incredible milestone is not just about marking time—it’s about honoring the generations of parishioners who have built a legacy of worship, fellowship, and service.

To kick off preparations for this momentous occasion, a special planning committee is being formed to organize events that will commemorate our parish’s rich history and vibrant future. You are invited to be part of this exciting journey!

The first committee meeting will take place on Sunday, May 18, 2026, following the 10:30am Mass. Whether you’ve been part of our parish for decades or just joined our faith community, your voice matters. We want to hear your stories, celebrate our past, and shape the events that will make our centennial celebration truly unforgettable.

Over the years, countless individuals, organizations, and ministry groups have contributed to making St. Mary Magdalen a beloved spiritual home. From school memories and parish festivals to inspiring pastors and heartfelt gatherings, this is our chance to reflect, honor, and rejoice together.

Calling All Parishioners!

Do you have treasured memories, photos, or stories about our parish? Would you like to help plan engaging events that bring our community together? If so, join us on May 18th and be part of this once-in-a-lifetime celebration!

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Treasures from our Tradition

The reception of Holy Communion at Sunday Mass is such an expected feature of the Mass these days that it is surprising to realize that for many centuries, receiving Communion was a relatively rare event in the life of a faithful Christian.

“Easter duty” means that Catholics must celebrate reconciliation if aware of serious sin, and receive Holy Communion during the Easter season. For a while, this was a requirement of Easter week, and later extended to the whole season of fifty days, and even beyond that by a few weeks. For the majority of people long ago, this meant Communion was a once-a-year moment. A rather complex bureaucracy grew up around this rule in the Middle Ages.

Amazingly, people received a kind of token at confession admitting them to Communion in their home parish, which then kept careful records and reported them to the bishop.

Surviving records can tell us a great deal about our ancestors. In fact, people were encouraged to journey to the church of their baptism in order to fulfill their duty, and therefore the Easter duty includes in its origins a grateful pilgrimage to the font in which you were first embraced by Christ.

If your “Holy Mother Church” is within a drive, why not make a pilgrimage to that font be a feature of your Easter celebration of these fifty days?

Lift Up Your Hearts

On this feast of Christ the Good Shepherd, we are reminded that Mary, our Mother, was the First Disciple of Jesus....and she responded to the angel:

"Let it be done to me according to Thy Word." She gives to all of us her example of listening to God's Word in order to fulfill our own vocations....to follow the Good Shepherd and to go where He guides us, the CALL to Serve the Lord using our own God-given gifts and abilities.

Yes, we are all called to be shepherds, but we are first called to be His sheep. So, we are fed by The Shepherd because we are His Sheep. But then, God uses us to also be shepherds and continue to feed others.

We all have a vocation to fulfill. We all proclaim His Word by the way we live and we are fed by taking His Word into our hearts as our nourishment....The Bread of Life.

Yes, may we come to The Table together and be nourished for all the days of our lives....

"HOLY MARY, MOTHER OF GOD
PRAY FOR US SINNERS, NOW
AND AT THE HOUR OF OUR DEATH. AMEN."

Reminder....the parish Rosary Group prays every Monday at 7:00pm in church.

With love, Fr. Leo
